

Governor's Service Awards Nominations

Community of Service

Hoosiers are capable of doing amazing things, and they are even better equipped to meet a community need when working together. Collaboration, a major theme of the 2013 Governor's Conference, can be key to doing the most good, and this award is reserved for communities working together in collaboration.

Nomination Deadline: July 19, 2013

Nominate a community of service with a significant presence in Indiana that has made a substantial positive impact in Hoosier communities through contributions of time and talent.

Nominations must be returned by mail and postmarked by July 19 as stipulated in the instructions included in the nomination form packet, which is available at the following link.

Download the award nomination form.

Award Ceremony: October 3, 2013

The Governor's Service Awards are presented as a part of the Governor's Conference on Service and Nonprofit Capacity Building, an event hosted by the Indiana Office of Faith-Based and Community Initiatives and SAVI Community Information System.

The reception is scheduled for the evening of October 3 at the Indiana Statehouse. Each honoree will receive a beautiful customized award, presented by the representatives of the highest office in Indiana.

Help Us Build Awareness

Share your decision to nominate and encourage others to make a nomination of their own with posts to your social media pages.

Via Twitter: Honor collaborators who make a difference - nominate them for a Governor's Service Award! <http://bit.ly/YGI9fB> #INGovConf

On Facebook: Honor collaborators who are serving our communities when you nominate them for a Governor's Service Award! <http://bit.ly/YGI9fB>